NEW YORK UNIVERSITY PRESS in cooperation with OCEANA PUBLICATIONS takes pleasure in offering the edited and up-to-date record of the PROCEEDINGS
of the
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY
FIRST ANNUAL CONFERENCE
on
IMMIGRATION AND NATIONALITY
(June 1953)

The text has been edited by Henry Sellin, Executive Director of the Department of Conferences and Institutes of the Division of General Education, who organized the conference. The volume includes the presentations of all the Immigration Service officials who spoke. The text has been completely checked by the authors so as to include necessary references and to bring the work completely up-to-date. In its present form, the volume is an authoritative analysis of the Immigration and Nationality Procedures currently in force.

The following is a summary statement of the contributors and their subjects:

SOL MARKS, Organization of the Immigration and Naturalization Service

MILTON V. MILICH, Visas and Petitions

SAM BERNSEN, Exclusion and Admission

WILLIAM FLIEGELMAN, Deportation

EDWARD P. EMANUEL, Discretionary Relief from Deportation and Adjustment of Status

LESTER FRIEDMAN, Judicial Review

IRA FIELDSTEEL, Naturalization and Nationality

In addition, the volume contains the texts of all the questions asked and all the answers given at the end of the Conference, together with an appendix by Elmer Fried with relation to the Special Laws applicable to the Serviceman.
